As an agility and training centre which is our primary business, we will also look after your dog during this time.

We have to provide care during their stay and therefore we have to inform you that they will interact with other dogs in an open field.

We will endeavour to ensure all possible care to the best of our ability.

We are licensed with Lichfield District Council to operate as a Dog Creche and are insured through Cliverton; which meets with all current legislation. We do not insist on dogs being insured but if your dog is insured please fill out these detail.
